What Is Going On At Mass?

Having just concluded the Preface to the Eucharistic Prayer by singing the Sanctus (the sacred Hymn in which we join the angels singing Holy, Holy, Holy), we kneel down in adoration for the Eucharistic Prayer. We kneel to prepare ourselves for the Lord Jesus to be really, truly, and substantially present on the altar.

St. Louis IX, King of France (1226-1270), who was known to regularly be at Mass and would kneel on the floor, once said, "At Mass God offers Himself as a sacrifice, and when God sacrifices Himself, kings should kneel on the floor."

"Kings should kneel on the floor."

Looking through the current Roman Missal, we find ten Eucharistic Prayers from which the priest can choose. The first, known as the Roman Canon, was the only Eucharistic Prayer used from its inception until 1970 when three "Ordinary Form" Eucharistic Prayers were added. In the current Roman Missal these are simply known as Eucharistic Prayer I (The Roman Canon), along with Eucharistic Prayers II, III and IV.

Eucharistic Prayer I includes many names of saints, which reminds us that we are supported by the witness and prayers of those who have gone before us.

Eucharistic Prayer II has some of the oldest known prayers in the Mass, which go back to the 200's A.D. It is strengthening to know that those early saints and martyrs were praying almost word-for-word the same words we use today—that is unity throughout time and place. Eucharistic Prayer III notes the Holy Spirit in particular and has a place for inserting the name of the saint of the day or patron saints. Eucharistic Prayer IV is really a tour of salvation history and reminds us of the GOSPEL OF St. John with phrases like, "And you so loved the world, Father most holy, that in the fullness of time you sent your Only Begotten Son to be our Savior."

The Roman Missal additionally includes two Eucharistic Prayers for Reconciliation and four Prayers for Masses for Various Needs. These options have the following titles:

"The Church on the Path of Unity";

"God Guides His Church along the Way of Salvation";

"Jesus, the Way to the Father";

and "Jesus, Who Went About Doing Good."

From the additional Eucharistic Prayers within the Roman Missal you might recognize:

"Lord renew your Church by the light of the Gospel." (Various Needs I)

"Help us to work together for the coming of your Kingdom." (Reconciliation I)

"May we make your church a sign of unity and an instrument of your peace." (Reconciliation II)

"Open our eyes to the needs of our brothers and sisters." (Various Needs IV)

There are also three Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with children (found in a separate book) prescribed only for Masses in which the majority of the participants are children.
