What Is Going On At Mass?

After the First and Second Readings at Mass, we hear the familiar statement, "The Word of the Lord." This is a testament of our faith in the inspired Word of God in Sacred Scripture. The congregation responds, "Thanks be to God!" expressing its gratitude that God has revealed himself to us and that He continues to speak to us.

Far more than just being "standard operating procedure," these little dialogues are really powerful affirmations of what is happening during the liturgy of the Word. While the lector proclaims God's Word, we listen to what God wants to teach us that particular day. Even if we are generally attentive to the readings, we can easily get distracted. Perhaps we notice someone sitting nearby and think of a question we wanted to ask him or her. Sometimes, a word in the reading reminds us of another thought. Maybe our stomach growls and we start thinking about what our next meal might be. In any event, at the end of the reading, the lector helps to get us back on track, if we have wandered astray. The lector says, "The Word of the Lord," as if to say, "In case you forgot or did not notice, the Lord God of heaven and earth was just speaking to you." It really is amazing to stop and think about: God is speaking to us, his people, through the readings at Mass...and you are worried about what your going to have for dinner?

Our response, "Thanks be to God," acknowledges that God is truly speaking to his people through the Bible reading we just heard and that we recognize we are blessed to hear those words! Being in the habit of turning to God in thankfulness can be helpful in our daily lives as well. In the midst of our lives, we easily get our hearts turned inward, such as when we are thinking about what makes us happy or what we would enjoy for dinner. In more serious situations, when we fall into sin, we are turned inward in a way that keeps our vision away from God and others. When this happens, we can find ourselves falling into selfishness and self-seeking behavior. Being truly thankful can give us a reset and help us to see and appreciate the gifts we have been given.

Not only does this dialogue help us acknowledge God and thank him for the Scriptures, but it can also help us stay in tune with what we are doing at Mass. As you may know, the word Eucharist itself means "thanksgiving." In the Mass, we join with Christ in the perfect sacrifice of praise to God the Father. As God's people, we are also joined together in thankful praise, recognizing the love of Christ and our invitation to share in that love. Very fittingly, after the Second Reading and response, we all praise God together in preparation for the Gospel as we sing the Alleluia!
