What Is Going On At Mass?

If you recall we talked last week about bread and wine as essential elements in Mass. As the priest places them on the altar he bows and begins to silently (or quietly) pray, "With humble spirit and contrite heart may we be accepted by you, O Lord, may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you, Lord God". The priest may even speak his own name in this on behalf of his people (all of us). This prayer and the priest recognize how much we need God and how unworthy we are of his love. We are not "throwing in the towel" as Christians, but rather acknowledging our shortcomings. The priest then says to the congregation, "pray ... that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God."

The congregation stands and responds in prayer, "May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands, for the praise and the glory of His Name, for our good and the good of all His holy Church."

Through this prayer we are asking for acceptance of our gifts, and asking that our gifts be good and pleasing to God.

In addition to the offering of bread and wine, which are not much even by human standards we have ourselves to offer. We all know that sometimes we are not very worthy offerings to God. Yet, we ask God to accept what we offer as if it were good and pleasing to him. And what is God's response? For the past 2000 years of Masses, no matter how big or small the congregation, no matter how strong or how weak their faith, no matter how worthy (or unworthy) we think our offerings are, God accepts them. As if that weren't enough, God in his love and generosity does something unbelievable with our meager gifts. He changes them into the very Body and Blood of Jesus Christ! God accepts the bread and wine from us and gives us back the gift of himself? What a generous exchange! What an amazing God we have!

Do This In Remembrance of Me!
