Meet Life

Confused by the events of the past few days, seven of Jesus' disciples went fishing. They returned to their old life, to the familiar feel of the nets. The next morning, a fisherman they did not know called to them from the shore and gave them advice for a catch. They had been expecting nothing, and that was what they had caught. But at the fisherman's words, their nets overflowed. They were surprised by a Miracle, and John knew, "It is the Lord" (John 21:7).—We are often in places where we do not look for life. When we bury one whom we have loved, when we face illness or loss, we are not expecting life, or hope, or miracle. The surprise of grace meets us on the road, at our work, at the graveside. The Lord finds us, and we meet life.

Lord, sometimes we forget that it is Easter, and we do not expect to meet you on our road. Surprise us with the joy of your presence. AMEN
