Prayers for the Conclave

The faithful are encouraged to offer their prayers, works, and almsgiving for the election of a new Supreme Pontiff. The simple custom of frequently praying the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be for this intentions is encouraged. The election of the new Pope should be prayed for in the recitation of the Rosary.

The Conclave Begins on Wednesday, May 7th.

Nominations for three Parish Council positions are now being accepted. Forms are at the back of church. Voting will be the last weekend in May.

Conclave Begins Wednesday, May 7

Conclave is the private meeting where those cardinals, under the age of 80, vote on who should be the next pope from amongst themselves. The voting takes place in the Sistine Chapel where each voting cardinal takes an oath of secrecy.

Voting takes place up to four times per day—two in each the morning and two afternoon. To elect a new pope a 2/3 majority of the vote is required. After each round of voting the ballots are burned. If the 2/3 majority is not met—no one is elected and a special chemical agent is added to the burning ballots to produce black smoke. The black smoke rising from the chimney of the Sistine Chapel sends a message to those outside the conclave that the seat is still vacant.

The first vote to elect Pope Francis' Successor will be taken Wednesday, May 7.

Stained Glass Design Approved!

The stained-glass design for St. Ann Church is rich in Catholic symbolism. The existing circular window displays the Holy Eucharist—the source and summit of our faith—on a field of blue waves. This water is the sacramental sign of new birth into the divine life, given to us at baptism by the Holy Spirit. The dark, deep color blue nearest the center indicates the depth of our faith when we remain close to the source. As we drift away from the source of our faith, the waters become shallow and lighter in color, almost colorless—indicating a lack of depth—an empty existence.

Viewing the windows from the other perspective, beginning furthest from the center, the waves pull us back, directing us to the source of our faith, the Eucharist.

The Archdiocese has approved this design. Now it is time for us to produce the financial support needed to finish the job. Your donation, no matter the size, will have a positive impact on this project. Contributions may be dropped off at the office or placed in the weekly collection basket. Please designate your intentional gift by specifying "Stained Glass Project" on the memo line of your check or envelope

Thank YOU, for YOUR support!

If you see them, say "hi" to Leslie Maxwell and her mom, Wilma Massingale!!

Leslie tells it best... My mother and I are from Lawrence, IN. We spent weekends and summers in Bethlehem, IN and have so many family memories of building our summer home growing up there! My parents bought the land and built the house as they could to avoid taking on debt. We had the best of both worlds - a city life for school, but a country life for growing up on weekends! I graduated from Anderson College with a nursing degree and practiced bedside nursing for many years as an RN, retiring from Anthem after 37 years as a Program Director. Mom was a 50s housewife; typical June Cleaver (or possibly a Harper Valley PTA mom because she was younger than most of my classmate's parents). Mom was a product of the 60s (mini-skirts and drop dead gorgeous, I wanted her to dress and look old). She managed 2 homes, took care of her children and husband, and entertained many of my father's clients, friends and families on weekends. She was a big volunteer in our community and believed in helping others. My parents were married 11 days after meeting and for 55 years prior to my dad passing away. I've been married for 41 years. We have a blended family: 3 children, 16 grandchildren, and 2 great grandchildren with 2 more on the way. I became a biological Pamma for the first time at age 69. I enjoy sewing, reading and spending time with my adult children, grandchildren and especially my mom. Mom loves to read, crochet and we both love doing puzzles.

When did they become parishioners? "We started going to St. Ann a few years prior to the new church being built and my dad's passing. Prior to that we were members at St. Barnabas where my son attended school. St. Ann's is both closer to home and we met a very nice lady and decided to continue attending. We have made many friends and love our church family! Mom and I have been actively involved with Ladies' Guild, Church Cleaning, VBS, funeral meals, Young at Heart and any other duties as requested."

Per Leslie, "I think it is important to remember no matter where you are, God is always with you. Keep God in your home, say your prayers, eat dinner together and share your day with your family over a meal. Thank God for all your blessings." She also notes, "St. Ann is growing, and we are becoming more and more diversified. Our church is changing in a positive way just like our neighborhoods are changing. I see our pews being full." Leslie currently chairs St. Ann Parish Council. "Remember Parish Council elections are upon us. Your voice counts!"
