As of 04/15/24 fifty-four of St. Ann's parishioners have pledged a total of $17,101. This is 92% of our goal. Within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis $5.35 million has been pledged toward a goal of $6.3 million.

Giving doesn't just make the mission possible.
Giving is part of the mission.

St. Ann's Young at Heart group will be participating in Culver's Giving Day on Wednesday, May 29th at the Kentucky Ave. location! St. Ann's parishioners will be greeting guests, taking food to tables and clearing tables from 5-8 p.m. We will receive 10% of all sales in exchange for our efforts. All proceeds will be put towards debt reduction. We invite all parishioners, friends & family to share the fun and help us become DEBT FREE! Questions? Call Linda Kile 317-213-4778

What Is Going On At Mass?

The Prayer over the Offerings has concluded and the Mass now moves to the center and the summit of the entire celebration, the Eucharistic Prayer. The word Eucharist comes from the Greek eucharistia which means "thanksgiving". Thus the Eucharistic Prayer is a prayer of thanksgiving and sanctification.

Acting in the person of Christ, the priest, in the name of the community, offers this great prayer of adoration and praise to the Father through the power of the Holy Spirit. Very clearly at the forefront, we are giving thanks to God as we are gathered around the altar. This unifying prayer begins with the familiar dialogue between priest (P) and congregation (C):

P: "The Lord be with you."

C: "And with your spirit."

P: "Lift up your hearts."

C: "We lift them up to the Lord."

P: "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God."

C: "It is right and just."

This dialogue is first reported in the Eucharistic prayer of St. Hippolytus (c. A.D. 215). Now, eighteen centuries later, we continue to say the same words, uniting us with the Christians of the early Church. Let that sink in for a moment: one of our oldest accounts of the Mass includes this dialogue. Think about all the Masses celebrated throughout history; think about that unity in prayer with all those who have gone before us. What an amazing reminder of the unity we share through the Mass!

Being asked to lift up our hearts to God is a "wake-up call" where the priest is summoning us to give our fullest attention to what is about to unfold. When we stand praying, we ought to be watchful and earnest with our whole heart, intent on our prayers. Let all carnal and worldly thoughts pass away, and let the soul not think of anything but the object of its prayer. Very clearly, the second exchange in the dialogue helps us renew our attention to God as we enter the Eucharistic Prayer.

The last section of the dialogue is a common biblical response to God's goodness and to his saving works in our lives. We should also be thankful for the miracle about to take place in our midst, as the bread and wine on the altar will be changed into the body and blood of Jesus. At this moment in the Liturgy there is much for which to be thankful. We therefore acknowledge that gratitude is the only fitting response to these mysteries. In answer to the priest's invitation to thank the Lord, we say, "It is right and just."

He echoes: "It is truly right and just" as we encourage each other in giving thanks. In these words, the priest communicates, "Yes! Let us continue giving thanks—it is right and just!"

Do This In Remembrance of Me!

“Make a joyful noise unto the Lord”

Music Ministry Open House

Wednesday, May 15th from 5:00-7:30 p.m.

Stop by and chat with our current members. Take this opportunity to try out the microphones, play the piano or organ, and learn a bit about church music and our ministry. If you play a different instrument, bring your own and hear how it sounds within the acoustics of our church. Stay as long (or as short) as you like.

This will be a casual setting with light refreshments available in the Narthex.

“He who sings joyfully to the Lord, prays twice.”
