Arts and Environment Ministry

The Arts and Environment Ministry is entrusted with the general care and preparation of the physical appearance of the church. Its focus is liturgical—arranging the appropriate flowers and natural elements in accordance with the special feast day, solemnity, liturgical season or ordinary time. This ministry is seeking individuals with a desire to learn and serve the church, honoring our God, by sharing his/her artistic talents. A meeting for all those interested is scheduled for Monday, August 28. The meeting will begin at 5:30 p.m. in the Shireman Room. Please join us. All are welcome.

Please consider supporting those who sponsor our bulletin.
