Think small

This idea is in a contemporary Christian song. Mother Theresa said to do small things with great love. On Facebook it is suggested that beach goers pick up 3 pieces of plastic every time they are there.

What may seem like a small thing to someone can be a truly big thing in another's life. Putting needed items in our Blessing Box in the parking lot. Contributing paper to the recycling bin. Giving clothing to Saint Vincent de Paul in the big blue bin in the parking lot. Getting a few extra things when you go shopping and donating them to the Saint Vincent de Paul food box in the entry way. Looking around your home for things that others could use and giving them to Annie's Attic for the Festival. Helping with Vacation Bible School by providing food items.

Taking time to hold open doors with a smile. Picking up trash where ever you find it. Straightening the hymnals and missalettes in the pews. Helping with Sunday donuts by pouring juice or cleaning up. Moving closer to the center of the pew so others feel more welcome to sit with you.

The more I think about "thinking small" the more ideas I get of how I can do this. I will be working on "thinking small" and changing it to small actions.

~ Mary Jane Jones
