FESTIVAL
SPONSORS NEEDED

We are asking for festival sponsors to help defray some of the 2017 festival's expenses. With this being our biggest fund raiser, let's continue to make this festival our best one to date.

We need your physical help, but with our weak economy, we could also use some additional financial assistance to help with the additional setup costs on our grounds.

By donating $150 you can help sponsor a booth and be acknowledged as a St. Ann's Festival Sponsor. If interested, you may contact Don Wilgus at 317-856-7442. You may drop your sponsorship money in the collection basket and mark it "Festival Sponsor". Make checks payable to St. Ann's Catholic Church.

If you cannot be a sponsor at this time, come to the festival, have fun, and pray for great weather.

Parenting at its best...

"You are who you are when no one is looking." Can't remember who said that but it came into my head while I was looking at and listening to a young mother. She was holding her baby close to her. She rocked the baby and stroked the baby's head. The young mother was trying to soothe her baby. She held the baby at her shoulder and patted and rubbed the baby's back. Momma was being so loving and attentive and patient. Those of us sitting and standing near this mother were smiling. Father Rob, standing at the altar, was smiling because he could see and hear her.

This mother was being the example of parenting at its best. The young mother was about thirty years old. I hope the parents of this three-year-old know their example of loving parenting is being emulated. I feel St. Ann, Mary, and St. Joseph were smiling, too. Made my day.
