posted of them. Glance over the gallery and make it a point to introduce yourselves. You will be glad you did!

Please welcome: Eleazar and Oralia Flores and their children, Kelly and Eleazar Jr. This family has been coming to St Ann from the Eastside of belong here. You enrich us, some family and friend

you for worshipping with us,

.Book Club

The Book Club did not meet during August. Our next meeting will be on Thursday, September 15 at 7:00 PM in the Jane Shireman Room. This time our book will be in a lighter vein than the last two books. It is a novel by Garth Stein, "The Art Of Racing In The Rain." The story is written from the point of view of a dog named Enzo. The story revolves around his master, Denny, who is a race driver. As another author, Sara Gruen, said,
"This old soul of a dog has much to teach us about being human." Come join us for a fun discussion on an enjoyable book. See Mike Cesnik to find out when the books will be available.

Ladies Guild

Our next Ladies' Guild Meeting will be on Tuesday, September 13th, 2016, at 7:00 p.m., in the Social Hall. We plan to assemble the kits for Dr. Barbara Winningham's Mission Trip to the Dominican Republic in October.
Some items we especially need are:
bars of soap, washcloths, and 1 gal.
plastic bags. Last year we were able to donate a little over 300 kits for her Medical Mission trip.

SIMPLY SEPTEMBER

KISS – Keep It Simple, Sweetie. Too often I complicate the simple. My goal for September is to simplify. Get back to basics. What stuff is preventing me from leading a simpler life? There is the material stuff that needs to go. How many platters do I NEED? A quick count shows I have three oval ones and four round ones. In the past year, I have used two of them. Truth is in the past ten years I have used three of them. I am setting aside a box for contributions to Annie's Attic at next year's festival. Spiritual stuff needs to go, too. For some "prayers" I say every day, I am just going through the motions. Time to make them meaningful again by being in the prayer moment rather than thinking of other things. Too many times I fail to trust in the Lord. Why do I get anxious about stuff over which I have no control? Simply trust in the Lord and do those things over which I have some responsibility.

ST. ANN MUSIC MINISTRY

Choir Members, Cantors, Instrumentalists and Accompanists - CALL OUT for Current, Former, and New members of the St. Ann Music Ministry. If you enjoy playing or singing God's praises, we want you. Please join us to exercise your faith through music as we offer many opportunities for participation.

Adult Choir

Our Parish Choir is seasonal, with rehearsals on Monday evenings from 7:00 - 8:30 pm, typically resuming 6 weeks prior to Christmas and Easter. Membership is open to all adult parishioners - only qualifications are the ability to carry a tune and a willingness to attend scheduled rehearsals and liturgies.

Youth Choir

Our Children's Choir, grades K-6, rehearses on Sunday following the 9:30 am mass, as part of the Religious Education program. They participate at First Communion, Christmas Eve, and other special youth liturgies.

Cantor

Our Cantors are dedicated vocalists who minister at weekend masses and special liturgies. They lead and support the sung prayer of the assembly and share in proclaiming the word of God. Training provided.

Instrumentalist / Accompanist

Musicians who play various types of instruments, are always welcome to join our ministry to enhance the liturgy as they accompany the choir and cantors.

For more information, please contact Mike McKay, Music Coordinator, at the Parish Office (821.2909) or email
