The license has been received for the raffle during the parish festival. John Cobb plans to have the raffle tickets printed by mid-May.

STEWARDSHIP

Jackie Cesnik reported on the combined meeting with representatives from St. Joseph and St. Thomas More on March 7. The Easter Egg Hunt will take place on Palm Sunday. Fr. Robb has been filling the eggs with candy. There will also be grand prizes for the 3 age groups (0-3, 4-6 and 7 and above). St Ann Stewardship is focusing on Time and Talent while leaving much of Treasure to the Finance Committee. St. Thomas More has tied their capital campaign (rebuilding the rectory) to Stewardship. He said that 11 children have been signed up with deposits. He added that Amy Pommer says that this is not a bad start. They are still working on hiring teacher aides. Amy would like a sign on the road in front of the church advertising the pre-school. Fr. Rob is checking with Mitzi at St. Joe about making up a sign. We may also make yard signs available. The Archdiocese is giving the parish a $30,000 grant to start up the pre-school. We still need financial support from parishioners as well as donated items for the children to use. We had "Soup and Bread" at St. Ann, and Ryan thanked everyone for bringing soup. Fr. Rob commented that we need St. Ann volunteers to help at St. Joe at their free meal on Thursdays night, both for preparation and clean up. The Seder Meal will be on April 10. Palm Sunday is April 14. Robb thanked John Cobb for prepping the classrooms for the pre-school, and he emphasized that the pre-school needs to be a parish wide project.

The meeting adjourned at 7:53 PM with the St. Ann Prayer.
