Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles
October 28

St. Jude, apostle...and Hollywood success story? Indeed! Beyond Simon's being a "Zealot" no historical facts are known about either saint. But St. Jude's well-known patronage of "lost causes" and "hopeless cases" is largely due to a desperate vow made just before World War II by a struggling entertainer, the son of Arab-American immigrants, Danny Thomas. Unemployed, his wife about to give birth, Danny attending Mass, impulsively donated his last $7.00 to the collection, promising "St. Jude, if you help me find my way in life I will build a shrine in our honor." Older Americans remember well Danny's long, successful career. Grateful parents wordwide know the miracles that have taken place for fifty years at his St. Jude Children's Research Hospital where needy children are cared for regardless of race religion or financial resources, and monumental advances continue in healing and preventing pediatric cancers and catastrophic childhood diseases. A living, life-giving partnership is this "Communion of Saints": Simon, Jude, Danny Thomas - us!
