2025 John D. Kelley Vocations Essay Contest

The Serra Club of Indianapolis is sponsoring its 2025 annual vocations essay contest. The contest is open to any Catholic student (grades 7 through 12) in parochial, public or homeschool systems within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

The theme and question for this year's contest is:

Theme:

The Holy Father has announced that 2025 is a Jubilee Year, a special occasion which happens every 25 years. The celebration begins on Christmas Eve, December 24, 2024, and concludes on January 6, 2026, on the Feast of the Epiphany. The theme for this Jubilee Year is "Pilgrims of Hope".

Question:

How has a priest or consecrated person encouraged you to seek God? How does pursuing a vocation bring hope into your life? And how are you preparing to know where God is calling you to build up his kingdom with your God-given talents?

For more details and an essay submission form, contact your school religion teacher, REP instructor, or parish catechist/youth minister. Information is also available from the Office of Vocations at vocations@archindy.org

Submitted essays must be postmarked no later than Friday, March 7, 2025.

Our apologies to the Williams family for the error in last week's bulletin. A portion of their bio was omitted. The complete article is provided below.

Growing up in Pike Township, Amanda was a St. Monica parishioner and attended Pike Township schools. She graduated from University of Evansville with a bachelor's degree in Sports Studies, a minor in Business, and a Coaching Endorsement. She has an MBA from Indiana Wesleyan University. Married since 2020, she and her husband have an almost-10-year-old son, Russell. Amanda attended Mass a few times when she bought her house, but officially came back to the Church Ash Wednesday of 2015 after having Russell.

Amanda is heavily involved in Russell's Cub Scout Pack 894 as a Den Leader and several other positions. She is also becoming more involved with Troop 894 as a Merit Badge Counselor. Additionally, Amanda serves as Decatur Township Civic Council president and is a member of the Decatur Township Fire Merit Board. She enjoys time with dog Chloe and cat Oreo as well as fun times with family!

Amanda gives generously of her time and talents as Chairperson of Stewardship, Vice-President of Parish Council, helping with costumes for the Religious Ed Christmas Pageant, volunteering with Mardi Gras and the St. Ann Festival and "any other activities that need help with running". What draws Amanda to St. Ann? "I like the diversity and seeing other cultures that represent our township; what our culture outside of church really is... more representative of real life." Amanda sees our parish growing, but recognizes the need to get more families involved and see non-white communities who are part of St. Ann represented at events such as Mardi Gras. What message does she have for children and young adults in the parish? "You are the next leaders of this church and we need your help shaping it to benefit the youth and keep them engaged and interested in church." Thank you for your service and example, Amanda!

2024 Contribution Statements are prepared and located on the table in the center of the Narthex. They are alphabetically arranged by LAST NAME. Please make sure to take yours soon!

We encourage you to consider supporting those who sponsor our bulletin.

Indiana MARCH FOR LIFE seeks 10-15 men to serve as escorts for the upcoming March for Life on January 22, 2025. 2000+ people of all ages will be gathering in downtown Indianapolis and your job is to help be a set of hands for any assistance for the marchers, crowd control, and help the security team direct traffic. This volunteer role is helpful in making this event smooth and safe! If you are, or anyone you know is, willing to help in this volunteer role, reach out to Eric Slaughter via email: ericslaughter@sbcglobal.net or you can call at 317-408-0528
