What Is Going On At Mass?

While the congregation sings the "Lamb of God", the priest takes the host, breaks it over the paten, and places a small piece in the chalice, quietly saying: "May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it."

We call this part of the Mass the Fraction (or the Breaking) and Commingling. The Catholic Encyclopedia teaches that, The "Fracturing" (from the Latin fractio) is the act of breaking the bread of the species consecrated in the Mass, which is why the breaking is sometimes called the Fracturing Rite. This rite, which is simple in its appearance, is full of ancient meaning. At the Last Supper, Jesus "broke the bread" to distribute to the disciples. After the Resurrection, the disciples recognized Jesus in the "Breaking of the Bread." Both in the Acts of the Apostles and in the letters of St. Paul, the Eucharistic celebration is often referred to as the "breaking of the bread."

This "breaking of the bread" is a sign of our unity, together sharing in the "One Loaf." Although for practicality many churches use smaller hosts for the distribution of Holy Communion, the symbolism of the fracturing reminds us that we are united in Christ, not only in the Mass where we are, but also with those present at Mass in every time and place. Another sign of unity is the Church's direction that, if possible, the faithful should receive Communion from hosts consecrated at that particular Mass. We, do however, know Christ is truly present and remains so in the hosts reserved in the tabernacle. Receiving hosts consecrated in the Mass in which we are participating provides a sign of unity and also strengthens our participation in the sacrifice of Christ.

The placing of the piece of the host into the chalice of wine is called Commingling. This is a very ancient custom dating back to at least the fourth century. Originally, it was designed to show unity and communion between the pope, bishops and their local Churches. Fragments of the host from the Masses celebrated by the pope or bishop were carried by the deacons to the local churches and placed into the chalices during the celebration of Mass. It symbolized the reality that the entire Church is present at every Mass. Even though it is not practiced as such today, the commingling of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ remains a beautiful part of the Communion Rite as it expresses a great reality.

When the consecration takes place, the bread and the wine are consecrated separately, for this is how our Lord instituted the memorial sacrifice of His death on the cross. He anticipated how His death would take place: the separation of His Body and Blood and He bled to His death on the cross. Some say that the separated species signify the Victim in the state of death (the body in one place, the blood in another).

The commingling at this point during the Mass symbolizes the re-union of Christ's body and soul as on the third day His Body and Soul were reunited forever. Thus, through the commingling of the consecrated host and the consecrated wine the unity and indivisibility of the body and blood of Jesus Christ are symbolized, assuring us that Christ is totally present in either species.

Catechetical Sunday—September 15th

Each year, the Catholic Church in the United States designates the third Sunday in September as "Catechetical Sunday"—a day on which to celebrate and pray for the Church's mission to teach the Gospel to all people. This year's theme is

"Lord, when did we see you hungry?" (Ma 25:37)

Loyola Press

The Eucharistic Congress, in Indianapolis, kicked off a new phase of the Eucharistic Revival movement. The YEAR OF MISSION has begun! It's time to carry this mission forward, setting our communities ablaze with Eucharistic love. It's time to point the world to the true source of its satisfaction! And YOU, yes YOU are needed.

You are God's Plan A to reach someone. I repeat, YOU are GOD'S PLAN A. There is someone in your life right now whom Jesus longs to call closer to his Eucharistic heart. And he wants YOU to be a part of that story! This is your opportunity to be God's instrument in the life of another person.

WALK WITH ONE is the key initiative of the Year of Mission, so you won't be doing this alone! Together as one Church, we will embrace our apostolic roots and show the world how beautiful it is to be Catholic!

God is MOVING, brothers and sisters! This Eucharistic Revival has borne much fruit already, and Jesus is just getting started!

Be the positive change in someone's life.
