What Is Going On At Mass?

We have examined what is element for receiving Holy Communion—one must be Catholic, in the state of grace, and in observance of a least a one-hour fast beforehand. This week we look at the proper way in which one is to receive the gift of communion.

First of all, it is important to notice that we “receive” Communion. Holy Communion is our greatest gift, a gift to be received through the generous love of Jesus. Holy Communion should never be taken by our own action. As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GRIM) states, “It is not permitted for the faithful to take the consecrated Bread or the sacred chalice by themselves and, still less, to hand them on from one to another among themselves. The norm established for the Dioceses of the United States of America is that Holy Communion is to be received standing, unless an individual member of the faithful wishes to receive Communion while kneeling” (GRIM, 160). Adjustments are possible for those unable to stand or kneel. Many churches have areas where Communion is brought directly to the pew for those who find walking to receive Communion difficult. The instruction makes clear that we are receiving the gift of Holy Communion and not taking this gift for ourselves, a truth we emphasize in the posture we observe as we receive the Sacred Host. For those receiving in the hand, we hold our hands steady with an open palm throne to receive Our Lord truly present. For those receiving on the tongue, we are still as we wait for the placement of the Sacred Host on the tongue.

As the GRIM continues, “When receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the Sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister... When Holy Communion is received under both species, the bow of reverence is also made before receiving the Precious Blood” (GRIM, 160). This sign of reverence actually provides an opportunity for our bodies to help remind our minds and hearts who we believe is before us. Our bow helps us recall that he really is there, and that we believe he really is there! Like many parts of our lives that are repeated regularly, we may risk just going through the motions at this part of the Mass. However, if we do that, we would be overlooking Jesus truly there before us!

As the minister proclaims, “the Body of Christ” or “the Blood of Christ” (depending on the species being given) the communicant responds with, “Amen!” This Amen should be spoken with vigor. This Amen is an important prayer of faith at the moment of receiving Holy Communion. This Amen says, “Yes, Lord, I believe. I love and I hope in you. I know my time of waiting is over, for my hope is now made into a reality which fulfills the deepest needs of my faith and my charity. You are mine, and I am yours...My soul worships you in stillness: (Understanding the Mass, p. 187). Let us make this beautiful prayer of faith our own, the next time, and every time, we say Amen and receive the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ!

Do This In Remembrance of Me!

Thank you, in advance, for your continued support!

Cornhole Baseball

Well fans, if you were not there, you missed another great game. It was back-and-forth all evening. By the bottom of the ninth the Red Team was up 2 runs. The Blue Team was at bat with two outs, two runners on base and a chance to win the game.

Alas, it was not to be.

Final Score: Red 30—Blue 28

Hope to see you all at the next game!

October 10th at 6:00 p.m. (Second Thursday of the Month).

Please consider supporting those who sponsor our bulletin.
